FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF BURKBURNETT, TEXAS

NOVEMBER 2016

Community Thanksgiving Service

The Thanksgiving Community Worship Event will be Sunday evening, Nov. 20 at 6:00 pm at First United Methodist Church. The time to worship and pray together as a community is NOW! We enjoy good relationships within our community and now we have a chance to join our voices together in praise, worship, and prayer. We should never take the blessings of those relationships for granted. Join us as we celebrate the love we share in Christ and the gifts of friendship, worship, and God's presence in our midst.

Come join us! Please invite your friends! There will be a reception in the Fellowship Hall immediately following the service and we need some homemade cookies to share in the gift of hospitality that is first of all Christ's great gift of welcoming us all and secondly our tradition as FUMC Burkburnett to offer warm and welcoming fellowship. Please contact the office if you can provide 2 doz. Homemade cookies.

Marriage Advice from 1886

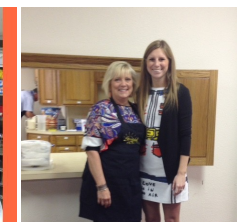

Let your love be stronger than your hate or anger.
Learn the wisdom of compromise, for it is better to bend a little than to break.
Believe the best rather than the worst.
People have a way of living up or down to your opinion of them.
Remember that true friendship is the basis for any lasting relationship. The person you choose to marry is deserving of the courtesies and kindnesses you bestow on your friends.
Please hand this down to your children and your children's children: The more things change the more they are the same.

Pastor's Corner

I have a few things on my mind. My dad is battling cancer and some different conversations have come up recently. We celebrated All Saint's Sunday and my dear friend Paula Utter was remembered. She had to "put her house in order the best she could in quick and difficult circumstances." I have been thinking about the gifts of peace of mind for my children and grandchildren.

Do you have a will? Have you thought about who should have your most precious possessions after you have died? Have you designated someone to make decisions for your treatment and care if you are not able? Would you like to greatly relieve the stress upon your family when it comes time to plan your funeral? How would you like to express your gratitude to God and allow your generosity to continue after your death?

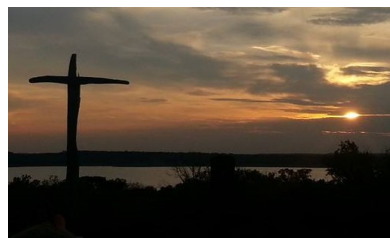

Sunday, Nov. 13, FUMC will sponsor a workshop called “Putting Your House In Order” presented by Rev. John Thornburg, from the Texas Methodist Foundation. He will provide a workbook that deals with formulating answers to sometimes priceless questions to help you communicate your wishes and pass on your values when you no longer make decisions for yourself. It prepares you for a visit to professionals, including your pastor, who can most help you with your legal, financial, and spiritual questions. I hope you will join me in this time of examining our stories, our lives, our narrative budgets. The workshop will begin immediately after the Second Sunday lunch, about 12:30 and will last 1 ½ hours. A workbook will be provided as a deeply practical way to provide information your loved ones will need to honor your wishes and help them in the probate process. You are encouraged to call the church office to let us know you will attend so we may have enough materials on hand. Please invite your friends to attend. This will be a beautiful way for “Giving It Up,” (that is your worldly treasures) so that God is honored and loved ones are informed and more at ease. Please join us!

Blessings!

Pastor Liz
